23rd July 2017 The 6th Sunday after Trinity

The Collect for Today

Creator God,

you made us all in your image: may we discern you in all that we see, and serve you in all that we do; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

From the Diocese

There has been a spate of break-ins involving 4 Devon churches very recently, resulting in significant damage at each. The police consider they are linked as the subsequent damage appears to be similar and, once inside the building, they are looking for keys. At the Crediton break-in, CCTV footage was recorded which will hopefully help the police. Please ensure that all valuables are locked away safely, and that no keys are left anywhere accessible within the building. Please could you all be extra-vigilant and watch for any suspicious behaviour around the church.

Thank you to everyone who cooked scones helped in the kitchen etc last Sunday for our Cream Tea. We made £100.60. There was a lovely atmosphere and we met a very nice lady whose family will be opening a shop in Market Street.

Thank you for joining us at St Mary's, Appledore today. We are always delighted to welcome new people, please introduce yourself so we can answer any questions you may have. Please join us after the 10.30am service for a coffee/tea & chat!

"HARBOUR"

Both helpers and members agree that the alterations in the Harbour premises are working well. The need to give practical support and advice to those in this area who find life a struggle is as strong as ever, so please keep up your donations of food and clothing. I am also willing to pass on gifts of money. I will put a new list from Harbour of what they need on the green box at the back of the church. Paul & Mary Smith.

Matthew 5:20-26 English Standard Version Anglicised (ESVUK)

For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Anger

"You have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgement.' But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother[a] will be liable to judgement; whoever insults his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, 'You fool!' will be liable to the hell of fire. So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. Truly, I say to you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny.

"Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it."

Don't promise when you're happy
Don't reply when you're angry
Don't decide when you're sad

Please take this Pew Sheet with you and maybe pass it on to someone who is unable to come to church but would enjoy reading it.
